

Mise

Mise is an AI agent that sits on top of existing hotel systems and acts as an intelligent layer between the systems and the people who use them. It picks up requests, assigns tasks to the right person, maintains memory across shifts, and makes sure nothing is lost when someone goes home. Staff always know what to do next. The team stays aligned. The guest feels the difference.

Not replacing existing systems.
Making them work for the people that use them.