

01 Task manager

Every request in one place

The agent picks up requests from any channel, assigns them to the right person based on role and availability, and tracks them to completion. Staff see a prioritised list, every task tied to a guest, with a reason behind the priority.

